

The Watauga Democrat.

LOCAL AFFAIRS

Weather was never finer.

Attend and patronize Watauga's Apple Show on the 21st.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. O. Lester Brown, a baby girl.

Mr. C. A. Ellis and family have moved into the Dr. Little residence.

A cement sidewalk, connecting the depot with Main street at the Critcher Hotel, is nearing completion.

Dr. R. D. Jennings announces that he will be away from his office in Boone from Wedns., Oct. 20, to Tues., Oct. 26.

Mr. S. R. Journey, of Olin, Ireland county, with his friend, Mr. Lon. Lunday, spent Sunday and Monday with his sister, Mrs. R. C. Rivers, in Boone.

Mr. Pres. Jennings, of Banner Elk, is making arrangements to take his family and hie away to the east coast of Florida for the winter.

Rev. J. W. Watts, of Taylorsville, owner of the cotton mills at Patterson and Turnersburg, is assisting the pastor, Rev. Ed. Hodges, in a series of meetings at Oak Grove church this week.

Mr. R. F. Bauguess, who has been Construction Foreman on Watauga's roads since work was begun well over two years ago, left Tuesday for his home in North Wilkesboro.

Mr. John Green and family have moved from their home on Green Heights to the Linney farm at Adams, and Mr. Thos. Beach and family have moved into the residence vacated by them.

Mrs. Luther Banner, of Montezuma, spent Tuesday night with Mrs. Mack Luttrell in Boone. She came ostensibly to make arrangements for the entry of three of her children in the Appalachian Training School, which she did.

Mr. J. C. Smith, brother of Clerk of the Court A. B. Smith, who has been working for some time at Newport News, Va., is visiting home folks and friends in Watauga for a few days before going to Fresno, Ohio, where he has taken employment for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke, of Wilmington, have been spending a few days at the Critcher Hotel. Mr. Clarke is highly pleased with this section of our good State, and intimates that if he can procure a location to his liking, he will build a summer home here.

He who would even attempt to cast an aspersion upon the character of a pure woman for political or other preferment, is worthy of the condemnation of the people and the everlasting defeat of the candidate in whose interest such reports are circulated.

The abandonment of road operations in Watauga until early spring, carried at least one blessing in its wake: The Road Commission had a considerable quantity of coal on hand which was sold and delivered to the people in and around town, which will go far toward solving the fuel problem for many in this neck of the woods. It seems that the price of fire-wood is going to be almost prohibitive.

One Mr. Clark, residence, God knows where, has been doing quite a good business in some parts of the county, according to a number of letters recently received stating that he was taking subscriptions to The Democrat at quite a lively clip in the Beech Creek and Matney sections. Who this imposter is, we have no idea, as we never heard of him before. He nor no other man is an authorized agent for this paper, and if the aforesaid Clarke can be apprehended he will be dealt with as the law directs.

Greene-Hughes.

At 10, a. m. last Sunday at the home of the bride's mother in Cranberry, Mr. David F. Greene, of Boone, was married to Miss Lucy Hughes, the Rev. E. Ray Gentry, performing the ceremony. Immediately after the marriage the happy couple left by automobile for a few days visit to Asheville and other points of interest. They will be at home to their friends at the residence of Dr. Anders in Boone after Oct. 20. Mr. Greene is one of our prosperous young business men, and his bonny bride is one of Avery county's most charming young ladies. The Democrat extends congratulations and best wishes.

Pastor Pleased.

I am highly pleased with the way in which our people are bringing up their church finances for the conference year. During the closing days of the Conference year let us add $2,000 in subscriptions to the $9,000 already subscribed to the building fund, and let us pay $2,000 in addition to the $5,000 already paid. In the past few days two young men, members of the Boone Methodist church, have subscribed $100 each. Several members of the Baptist church are heartily helping in this good cause.

WATAUGA'S APPLE SHOW.

On Thursday, Oct. 21, there will be an apple show in Boone. Select your choicest fruit and be here on that date. Box crate, or single plate of five apples. Cash prizes will be paid for the best exhibits—the same to be sent to the Western North Carolina Apple Show at Asheville, N. C. Grade your apples as to size, color, uniformity and freedom from blemishes. Write or 'phone Secretary of Boone Commercial Club for any further information.

Rev. Mr. Walker Next Sunday.

It is my desire to meet all the people of this community in the court house on next Sunday morning and night. This is the closing Sunday of our Conference year. Let us make our last Sunday of the year our very best.

J. R. WALKER.

Personal Property Sale.

On Saturday, Oct. 23, at 10 o'clock, a. m., I will sell at public auction my home place at Balun, N. C., consisting of twenty acres of land and all improvements. Also all my personal property will go for the high dollar. Now is the time to buy one of the most desirable homes in the county at your own price. Don't forget the date.

F. P. JENNINGS.

Polling Place Changed.

On petition of a number of voters in Watauga township, the county board of elections orders that the polling place be changed from the present (the junction of the Boone and Blowing Rock road) to the forks of the road near the G. W. Robbins store building occupied by the Boone Fork Lumber Co. This Oct. 11, 1920.

TWO GOOD FARMS AT AUCTION

HON. W. P. MOODY, of Vilas, N. C., formerly Sheriff of Watauga County, has engaged us to sell his two farms at public auction, which we will do, beginning with the home farm of four hundred and thirty-six acres cut into small tracts, and to be sold FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22nd. This fine farm has nearly 100 acres of good bottom land, fine blue grass pasture, good timber, a new house, good barns and other outbuildings. It will go at a bargain, and is one of the best sections of the state. You cannot go wrong if you buy here.

His grazing farm, formerly the Martin farm, located on the Blowing Rock turnpike, near Shulls Mill, containing 344 acres, and will give you a chance to own a small grazing farm or a larger one. You can get what you want if you are there on SATURDAY, OCT. 23rd. The sales each day will begin at ten a. m., rain or shine, on the premises. The home farm of 436 acres to be sold Friday is almost in sight of Danner Siding and only a short distance from Boone. The sale Saturday is easily reached from Shulls Mill. Railroads and turnpikes are being built, and money invested here will bring great results soon.

Terms On Both Farms: 1-4 Cash; Balance 1, 2, 3 And 4 Years
